RULING ON ENTITLEMENT AND DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On August 19, 2015, Emily Dworkin ("petitioner") filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act" or "Program"). Petitioner alleges that the influenza ("flu") vaccination that she received on October 14, 2014, caused her to suffer a shoulder injury. See generally Petition. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit ("SPU") of the Office of Special Masters.

On November 16, 2015, respondent filed a Rule 4(c) Report and Proffer on Damages ("Report and Proffer") in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Report and Proffer at 1. Specifically, respondent concluded that petitioner's alleged injury is consistent with shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA"), and that it was caused in fact by the flu vaccine she received on October 14, 2014. Id. at 3. Additionally, respondent did not identify any other cause for petitioner's SIRVA, and records show that she has suffered the sequela of her injury for more than six months. Id. Petitioner has therefore "satisfied all legal prerequisites for compensation under the Act." Id.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all "§" references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Based upon the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $60,000.00 in compensation. Report and Proffer at 3. Respondent represents that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id.

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence of record, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation. Further, based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report and Proffer on Damages.

Pursuant to the terms stated in Respondent's Rule 4(c) Report and Proffer on Damages at 3, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $60,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Emily Dworkin.³ This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.⁴

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.
